

THE CORNWALL PUBLIC INQUIRY
The Honourable G. Normand Glaude, Commissioner

Ontario

NOTICE OF HEARING

Mr. Justice Normand Glaude has been appointed as the Commissioner of the Cornwall Public Inquiry. In Part I, the Commission will inquire into and report on the institutional response of the justice system and other public institutions, including the interaction of that response with other public and community sectors, in relation to:

- a. allegations of historical abuse of young people in the Cornwall area, including the policies and practices then in place to respond to such allegations, and
 - b. the creation and development of policies and practices that were designed to improve the response to allegations of abuse
- in order to make recommendations directed to the further improvement of the response in similar circumstances.

In Part II, the Commission will inquire into and report on processes, services or programs that will encourage community healing and reconciliation in Cornwall.

In doing so, the Commission may provide community meetings or other opportunities apart from formal evidentiary hearings for individuals affected by the allegations of historical abuse of young people in the Cornwall area to express their experiences of events and the impact on their lives.

Applications by interested individuals and/or organizations for standing and funding in relation to both Part I and Part II of the Inquiry will be heard commencing at 10:00 a.m. on November 7, 2005 and continuing on November 8 and 9, 2005 in the City of Cornwall at the address set out below.

NO EVIDENCE WILL BE HEARD AT THIS TIME.

The criteria for standing in Part I and/or Part II of the Inquiry and the criteria for funding are set out in the Rules of Practice and Procedure a copy of which can be obtained at our website at www.cornwallinquiry.ca or contacting our office at the address and/or telephone number set out below.

Applications for standing should be made in writing and provide the following information:

- a. Whether standing is sought for Part I and/or Part II of the Inquiry; and
- b. A statement of how the applicant satisfies the criteria for standing set out in the Rules of Practice and Procedure.

Applications for funding should be made in writing and should provide the following information:

- a. A statement of how the applicant satisfies the criteria for funding set out in the Rules of Practice and Procedure. In demonstrating why an applicant would not otherwise be able to participate without such funding, the application may include financial information and, for organizations, financial statements, operating budgets, the number of members and membership fee structure.

Applicants should also indicate whether they have contacted other groups or individuals to bring them into an amalgamated group, and the results of those contacts;

- b. A description of the purposes for which the funds are required, how the funds will be disbursed and how they will be accounted for;
- c. A statement of the extent to which the applicant will contribute its own funds and personnel to participate in the Inquiry; and
- d. The name, address, telephone number and position of the individual who will be responsible for administering the funds, and a description of the financial controls put in place to ensure that the funds are disbursed for the purpose of the Inquiry.

Applications for standing and/or funding should be submitted to the Inquiry by delivering a copy either to our office in Cornwall at the address set out below or by e-mail at info@cornwallinquiry.ca by no later than 5:00 p.m. on October 25, 2005.
