

Rudy Gheysen, Director Ontario Police College

Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services

Rudy Gheysen was appointed Director of the Ontario Police College on July 5, 2001.

Rudy joined the Ministry in August 1995 as Deputy Director, Patrol Training, at the Ontario Police College.

Rudy began his policing career in 1975 with the London Police Service, moving to Aylmer Police Service where he gained experience in a wide range of policing operations.

In March of 1987, he was appointed Chief of Police for the Town of Aylmer where he remained until his appointment as Deputy Director of the Ontario Police College.

Mr. Gheysen holds a B.A. in Social Sciences and a Diploma in Police Management Studies from the University of Western Ontario. He has completed the Executive Development Course at the Canadian Police College as well as Police Management Studies and Executive Management Courses at the Ontario Police College.

He is a life member of the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (C.A.C.P.) and the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police (O.A.C.P.). Currently, he sits as a member of the C.A.C.P. H.R. Committee, O.A.C.P. Training Committee, the Board of Directors of Canadian Police Sector Council (CPSC) is chair of CPSC Education and Training Committee and member of Canadian Police Knowledge Network (CPKN) Advisory Board.