

Updated - February 7, 2006

Teachers and Students Resource Chart – Grades 9, 10, 11, and 12¹

ECONOMICS

Analysing Current Economic Issues (CIA4U)
Economic Stakeholders – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-analyse the economic and social/cultural impact of resource development on traditional lands of First Nation peoples (e.g., logging or commercial fishing in British Columbia, pipeline construction or mining in the North, gaming in Ontario)	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005)
Making Economic Choices (CIC3E)
Economic Stakeholders – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-analyse the involvement of indigenous people in the economy	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005)

¹ All of the Ipperwash Inquiry materials referred to in this chart are located on the Inquiry’s web site at www.ipperwashinquiry.ca

GEOGRAPHY

Geography of Canada (CGCID)
Geographic Foundations: Space and Systems - specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-illustrate and explain the regional distribution patterns of various peoples across Canada (e.g. Aboriginal peoples)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc.
-analyse the location pattern of recent First Nation land claims in Canada	“Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle “The Resolution of Land Claims in Ontario: A Background Paper” by the Ontario Native Affairs Secretariat (April 27, 2005)
Human-Environment Interactions – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-explain the ways in which the traditional ecological knowledge of Aboriginal peoples, including their concepts of place, wilderness, and boundaries, influences how they interact with their environment	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Consultation about Aboriginal burial and other sacred sites in Ontario (February 26, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal

	occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-evaluate differing viewpoints on the benefits and disadvantages of selected resources megaprojects (e.g. James Bay hydro complex, diamond mines in the Northwest Territories, Mackenzie Valley oil/gas pipeline)	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005)
Geography of Canada (CGC1P)
Geographic Foundations: Space and Systems – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-identify and explain the regional patterns of population distribution of Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people across Canada (e.g. where various groups are located and why they settled there)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005
Human-Environment Interactions –	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials

specific expectations
-identify the ways in which the traditional ecological knowledge and perspective of Aboriginal peoples influence how they interact with their environment today (e.g. Aboriginal view of hot springs as traditional sacred sites, not tourist attractions)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Consultation about Aboriginal burial and other sacred sites in Ontario (February 26, 2005) Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005 “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-compare the benefits and costs (e.g., social, economic, environmental) of selected resource megaprojects (e.g. James Bay hydro complex, diamond mines in the Northwest Territories, Mackenzie Valley pipeline)	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s

	web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005
Understanding and Managing Change – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-identify the costs and benefits (e.g. income, resource protection, cultural self-determination) to selected groups in Canada of recent Aboriginal land claims	“Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
The Americas: Geographic Patterns and Issues (CGD3M)
Geographic Foundations: Space and Systems – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials

-describe the cultural realms (e.g. indigenous) and other major human patterns of the Americas	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ippeewash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ippeewash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc.
-evaluate the effects of contact with other cultures on indigenous peoples in selected regions of the Americas	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ippeewash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ippeewash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005)
Canadian and World Issues: A Geographic Analysis (CGW4U)
Geographic Foundations: Space and Systems – specific expectations	Ippeewash Inquiry Materials
-explain why places and regions are	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes

important to the identities of selected human groups (e.g. Nunavut as an example of Aboriginal self-government)	Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Consultation about Aboriginal burial and other sacred sites in Ontario (February 26, 2005) Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-explain how point of view influences an individual’s perception of a place (e.g. indigenous people differ with other groups on what constitutes a wilderness)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Consultation about Aboriginal burial and other sacred sites in Ontario (February 26, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows

	The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Human-Environment Interactions – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-produce a case study of a specific situation in which resource development has contributed to the disruption of an ecosystem (e.g. oil extraction and logging on Lubicon Cree lands in Alberta)	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
The Environment and Resource Management (CGR4M)
Human-Environment Interactions –	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials

specific expectations
-identify differences in the perception of nature and the views on environmental preservation of selected individuals and groups (e.g. indigenous peoples)	Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Consultation about Aboriginal burial and other sacred sites in Ontario (February 26, 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-evaluate the environmental, economic, and social implications of resource dependency for various individuals or groups (e.g. indigenous peoples)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc.

	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Global Connections – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-identify ways in which the traditional ecological knowledge and related activities of indigenous people around the world affect the environment	Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005
Geomatics: Geotechnologies in Action (CGO4M)
Human-Environment Interactions – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-assess the role of geotechnologies in addressing environmental issues affecting indigenous peoples (e.g., construction of hydroelectric dams, resource management, construction of oil/gas pipelines, decline of traditional food sources, rainforest development, land claims)	“History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”

HISTORY

Canadian History Since World War I (CHC2D)
Communities: Local, National and Global – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-identify contributions to Canada’s multicultural society by regional, linguistic, ethnocultural, and religious communities (e.g. Aboriginal peoples, Métis)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. Mennonite Central Committee of Ontario Consultation with the Ipperwash Inquiry (January 14, 2005) Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004)
-describe Canada’s and Canadians’ contributions to the war effort overseas during World War I and World War II (e.g. contributions of individuals, such as Tommy Prince; contributions of groups, such as Aboriginal peoples)	Testimony of Clifford George at the Ipperwash Inquiry hearings on September 10, 20 and 21, 2004 “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc.
Change and Continuity – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-evaluate the impact of social and demographic change on Aboriginal communities (e.g., relocation, urbanizations, education, pressure to assimilate)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes

	and Associates, Inc. “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Citizenship and Heritage – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-describe the achievements of Aboriginal organizations (e.g., Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami, Assembly of First Nations, National Aboriginal Veterans Associations, Union of Ontario Indians) in gaining recognition of the rights of Aboriginal peoples in Canada	Testimony of Gordon Peters March 30 and 31, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiaike Alfred and Lana Lowe
-assess the contributions of selected individuals in the development of Canada identify since 1914 (e.g. Matthew Coon Come)	Dudley George – see testimony of Marcia Simon on Sept. 23, 2004, pp. 131-144 of the transcripts Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005

	Testimony of Gordon Peters March 30 and 31, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005
Canadian History Since World War I (CHC2P)
Communities: Local, National, and Global – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-identify the contributions made by selected regional, provincial, linguistic, ethnic, and/or religious communities to Canada’s multicultural society (e.g., Aboriginal nations, Métis, Inuit)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. Mennonite Central Committee of Ontario Consultation with the Ipperwash Inquiry (January 14, 2005) Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-describe Canada’s and Canadians’ contributions to the war effort overseas during World War I and World War II (e.g., contributions of individuals, such as Tommy Prince; contributions of groups, such as Aboriginal peoples)	Testimony of Clifford George at the Ipperwash Inquiry hearings on September 10, 20 and 21, 2004 “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc.
Citizenship and Heritage- specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials

-describe some of the factors shaping the experience of Aboriginal peoples in Canada since 1914 (e.g., relocation, urbanization, education, pressures to assimilate) and ways in which Aboriginal people have worked to achieve recognition of Aboriginal treaty rights	Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiiake Alfred and Lana Lowe “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First
--	--

	Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-describe how the work of selected significant individuals have contributes to the growing sense of Canada identity since 1914 (e.g. Mathew Coon Come)	Dudley George - see testimony of Marcia Simon on Sept. 23, 2004, pp. 131-144 of the transcripts Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005 Testimony of Gordon Peters March 30 and 31, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005
Methods of Historical Inquiry and communication – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-formulate different types of questions (e.g., causal : What were the main causes of the Oka Crisis?) when researching historical topics, issues and events	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiaki Alfred and Lana Lowe “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First

	Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing” “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Civics (CHV20)
Informed Citizenship – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-compare the benefits and drawbacks of democratic and authoritarian forms of decision making, drawing on examples from everyday contexts (e.g., majority rule and the rights of minorities, including Aboriginal peoples)	“The Oversight of Executive Police Relations in Canada: The Constitution, the Courts, Administrative Processes and Democratic Governance” by Professor Lorne Sossin “Police-Government Relations in the Context of State-Aboriginal Relations” by Professor Gordon Christie “The Idea of the Political “Independence” of the Police: International Interpretations and Experiences” by Professor Philip Stenning “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiaki Alfred and Lana Lowe Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Purposeful Citizenship – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-explain how democratic beliefs and values are reflected in citizen actions (e.g., National Aboriginal Day)	Mennonite Central Committee of Ontario Consultation with the Ipperwash Inquiry (January 14, 2005)

	Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) Ipperwash Inquiry Commissioner’s Statement about Nation Aboriginal Day (delivered June 20, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-analyse Canadian issues or events that involve contrasting opinions, perspectives, and civic purposes (e.g. Oka Crisis of 1990, Native self-governance)	“History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Warrior Societies in Contemporary

	Indigenous Communities” by Taiiaki Alfred and Lana Lowe Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005 Testimony of Gordon Peters March 30 and 31, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing” “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Canadian History and Politics Since 1945 (CHH3C)
Communities: Local, National, and Global	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
- assess the impact of the Charter of Rights and freedoms on personal and cultural relations in Canada (e.g. Aboriginal and treaty rights)	“Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005)

	“History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-analyse the role of government in the development of social justice for Canadians (e.g. the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples, the Ipperwash Inquiry)	Order in Council establishing the Ipperwash Inquiry, dated November 12, 2003 Ipperwash Inquiry Commissioner’s statements dated April 20, 2004, July 13, 2004, November 1, 2004, March 30, 2005, June 1, 2005, and June 30, 2005
Change and Continuity – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-explain the difficulties in resolving issues of identify and autonomy involving Aboriginal communities and local, provincial and federal governments (e.g. Aboriginal self-government, land claims, taxation, justice system)	“Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal

	Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiaki Alfred and Lana Lowe “Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005 Testimony of Gordon Peters March 30 and 31, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing” “Ippeewash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Citizenship and Heritage – specific expectations	Ippeewash Inquiry Materials
-assess the importance to Canadian society of the cultural mosaic and of the right of individual self-expression, as reflected in	“History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows

government policies and popular attitudes (e.g., changes to the Indian Act)	The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiaiake Alfred and Lana Lowe Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing” “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-describe significant events that have stirred the Canadian imagination and spirit	Dudley George’s death in September 1995

or have affected Canada’s image at home and/or abroad (e.g., Oka Crisis)	“History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Social, Economic, and Political Structures – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-evaluate the continuing efforts by Canadian groups and individuals to promote equity and multiculturalism since 1945 (e.g. Aboriginal Peoples Television Network)	Mennonite Central Committee of Ontario Consultation with the Ipperwash Inquiry (January 14, 2005)
-assess the effectiveness of the programs and methods of various interest groups in Canada in influencing public policy (e.g. Assembly of First Nations)	Testimony of Gordon Peters March 30 and 31, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiiake Alfred and Lana Lowe “Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Methods of Historical Inquiry and Communication – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-analyse historical events and issues from the perspectives of different participants in those events and issue (e.g., the Oka Crisis from the perspectives of the Quebec	“Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiiake Alfred and Lana Lowe

government and the Mohawk Warriors)	“History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing” “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Canadian History and Politics Since 1945 (CHH3E)
Communities: Local, National, and Global – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-identify examples of public inquires and royal commissions in Canada and describe their focus (e.g. Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples)	Order in Council establishing the Ipperwash Inquiry, dated November 12, 2003 Ipperwash Inquiry Commissioner’s statements dated April 20, 2004, July 13, 2004, November 1, 2004, March 30, 2005, June 1, 2005, and June 30, 2005
Change and Continuity – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-describe key unresolved issues of identity and autonomy involving Aboriginal communities and local, provincial, and federal governments (e.g., Aboriginal self-government, land claims, repatriation of native artefacts, justice system)	“Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet

	Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiiake Alfred and Lana Lowe “Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin Consultation about Aboriginal burial and other sacred sites in Ontario (February 26, 2005) Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) Testimony of Robert Allan Antone March 10, 2005 Testimony of Gordon Peters March 30 and 31, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located
--	--

	under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Citizenship and Heritage – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-describe significant events that have stirred the Canadian imagination and spirit or have affected Canada’s image at home and/or abroad (e.g., Oka Crisis)	Dudley George’s death in September 1995 “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Social, Economic, and Political Structures – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-identify and describe continuing efforts by Canadian groups and individuals to promote equity and multiculturalism since 1945 (e.g. Aboriginal Peoples Television Network)	Mennonite Central Committee of Ontario Consultation with the Ipperwash Inquiry (January 14, 2005)
-describe some of the programs and methods of various interest groups in Canada (e.g., Assembly of First Nations)	Testimony of Gordon Peters March 30 and 31, 2005 Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005 “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiiake Alfred and Lana Lowe “Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Methods of Historical Inquiry and Communication – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials

-formulate different types of questions (e.g., causal: What were the main causes of the Oka Crisis?) when researching historical topics, issues and events	“Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiiake Alfred and Lana Lowe “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) Examinations in Chief of Darlene Johnston, July 13 and 14, 2004, and Joan Holmes August 17, 18 and 19, 2004 “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Canada: History, Identity, and Culture (CHI4U)
Communities: Local, National, and Global – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-describe various aspects of Aboriginal life prior to contact with Europeans (e.g. traditional economics, spirituality, relationship with the environment, political organizations)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004)
-analyze significant aspects and effects of the interactions between Aboriginal peoples and European colonists (e.g., spread of disease; introduction of new weapons; missions; Aboriginal peoples’ sharing of environmental knowledge with Europeans; the Royal Proclamation of 1763; territorial relocation; emergence of the Métis; treaties; Riel Rebellion; movement towards self-government)	“Ipperwash: General Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005)

	“History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-assess the extent to which Canadian identity and culture have been influenced by Aboriginal peoples	Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004)
-evaluate the extent to which Canada’s reputation as a humanitarian nation is merited (e.g. Canadian treatment of Aboriginal peoples)	Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s

	web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Warrior Societies in Contemporary Indigenous Communities” by Taiiaki Alfred and Lana Lowe Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Citizenship and Heritage – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-analyse the causes and effects of prejudice and discrimination throughout Canadian history (e.g., residential schools for Aboriginal children)	Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004), in particular the presentation by Elder Merle Assance-Beedie on October 14, 2004 Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources

	Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-evaluate efforts on the part of individuals, groups, and government to promote human rights in Canada (e.g., movement for Aboriginal self-government)	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s

	web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Social, Economic, and Political Structures – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-assess the extent to which education and health care have shaped regional, provincial and national identities (e.g. residential schools for Aboriginal children)	Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004), in particular the presentation by Elder Merle Assance-Beedie on October 14, 2004 Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005)
-describe past and present Aboriginal political organizations (e.g. Ojibwa clan system, Iroquois Confederacy, Inuit Tapirisat of Canada, Assembly of First Nations, Métis National Council)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005
-assess the impact of selected political figures (e.g. Louis Riel, Ovide Mercredi, Elijah Harper, Mathew Coon Come) on changes in Canadian politics	Testimony of Ovide William Mercredi March 31 and April 1, 2005
Methods of Historical Inquiry and Communication – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-analyse historical events and issues from the perspectives of different participants in those events and issues (e.g. early French colonization from the perspective of Aboriginal peoples; the Red River Rebellion from the perspectives of the followers of Louis Riel)	The events at Ipperwash and Dudley George’s death in September, 1995 from the perspective of some of the Aboriginal people involved in the events – Aboriginal witnesses testified from September 10, 2004 until April 18, 2005

	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing” “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
World History: The West and the World (CHY4U)
Communities: Local, National, and Global – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-analyse the impact of Western colonization on both the colonizer and the colonized (e.g., exploitation of resources and indigenous populations)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal

	Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005)
-analyse key factors that have led to conflict and war (e.g., demographic pressures, as in the dislocation of Aboriginal populations)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ippeewash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Citizenship and Heritage – specific expectations	Ippeewash Inquiry Materials
-describe key examples of the impact of Western thought on the non-Western world since the sixteenth century (e.g. transformation or loss of indigenous spiritual beliefs, cultures, and economies)	Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) “Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by

	John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005)
-explain the ways in which non-Western cultures have attempted to resist the spread of Western influences (e.g. Aboriginal resistance to European settlement)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal

	and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
World History: The West and the World (CHY4C)
Communities: Local, National, and Global – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-describe aspects of the impact of Western colonization on both the colonizer and the colonized (e.g., exploitation of resources and indigenous peoples)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005)
-describe pivotal events, issues, and personalities associated with the process of decolonization and nation building from 1945 to the present (e.g. Aboriginal land claims)	“Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005)

	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005)
-describe the key factors that have led to conflict and war (e.g. population and resource-based conflicts, as in the dislocation of Aboriginal populations of Nigeria)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ipperwash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing” “Ipperwash and the Media: A critical analysis of how the story was covered” - located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Citizenship and Heritage – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-describe some key examples of the impact of Western thought on the non-Western world (e.g., transformation or loss of indigenous spiritual beliefs, cultures and economies)	Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) “Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston

	“History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005)
-describe how non-Western cultures have attempted to resist the spread of Western influences (e.g. Aboriginal resistance to European settlement)	“Connecting People to Place: Great Lakes Aboriginal History in Cultural Context” by Darlene Johnston “Ippeewash Commission of Inquiry Historical Background” by Joan Holmes and Associates, Inc. “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) Indigenous Knowledge Forum transcripts (October 14, 2004) Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows

	The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
--	---

LAW

Understanding Canadian Law (CLU3M)
Rights and Freedoms - specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-describe the historical and contemporary situations in which rights in Canada have been denied (e.g., First Nation rights to land and veterans' benefits)	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
-explain how human rights legislation and the courts attempt to balance minority and majority rights (e.g., in the sentencing of Aboriginal people)	“Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet

	Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Canadian and International Law (CLN4U)
Rights and Freedoms – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-identify historical and contemporary examples of conflicts between minority and majority rights (e.g., Riel Rebellion, the Quebec sovereignty debate, First Nation land claims)	“The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet Consultation about the draft paper entitled “The Role of the Natural Resources Regulatory Regime in Aboriginal Rights Disputes in Ontario” by Jean Teillet (March 15, 2005) “Addressing Aboriginal Land and Treaty Rights in Ontario: An Analysis of Past Policies and Options for the Future” by

	Michael Coyle Consultations about Aboriginal land claims (February 4 2005 and April 29 2005) “History and Comparison of Aboriginal Land, Treaty and Rights Occupations” by John Borrows The web cast (available on the Inquiry’s web site) of the Inquiry’s symposium dealing with the policing of Aboriginal occupations and the history of Aboriginal occupations (August 19, 2005) Youth and Elder Forum about Aboriginal and Police Relations – forum notes (April 22, 2005) “Under Siege: How the People of the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation Asserted Their Rights and Claims and Dealt with the Backlash” – located under “Submissions by Parties with Standing”
Criminal Law and Procedures – specific expectations	Ipperwash Inquiry Materials
-analyse cases in which the principles of justice have been violated (e.g., the cases of Donald Marshall, David Milgaard, Guy Paul Morin, Roméo Phillion)	“Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System” by Jonathan Rudin